

Previously in True Loves:

A year ago, True Kilbourne, a vintage clothing store owner, was dating up-and-coming internet entrepreneur Dirk. While a nice enough guy, he was more focused on his burgeoning business than he was on their relationship.

Enter Zander Gunn, a customer at True's store who she kept running into accidentally, and then on purpose. True dallied with Zander while trying to break up with Dirk. With some vigorous coaching from her friend/employee Eliza she finally succeeded in dumping Dirk and started seeing Zander with a clean conscience.

Eliza, however, maintains some hostility towards Zander because she once had a one night stand with Zander's buddy Herb (and she stole his pot).

